

ANZSASI 2017 NEW VENUE

Dear ANZSASI Regional Air Safety Seminar attendees,

It's great to be able to let you know the new venue for ANZSASI 2017. Thanks largely to the efforts of Lou Child on our behalf, the Regional Seminar will now be held at the Intercontinental Hotel Wellington a 5 star hotel at 2 Grey Street Wellington. The hotel is in the central business city and an easy walk to the foreshore, shops and restaurants. They are offering the same room rate as the Amora; $199 a night, but as yet we do not have a conference code for you to quote. They are holding rooms for us. If you have already booked accommodation, you will shortly receive an email from the Amora hotel advising you that your booking has been transferred to the Intercontinental Hotel at the same rate of $199 including breakfast (for one). You will need to supply your credit card details to the Intercontinental as the Amora are not authorised to pass on credit card details to a third party. We'll forward the final programme soon, and continue to provide details (such as the booking code) as they come to hand.

Thanks and all the best,

Russ Kennedy (Sec/Treas NZSASI).
