At long last we are emerging from COVID 19 restrictions and able to resume planning for Reachouts. I am in discussion with the Omani accident investigation body and have presented a proposed team to them. This Reachout has been in planning since late last year and has been re-scheduled from mid-year to October November. I have also approached interested parties in Cambodia but with little feedback as of this time. I will continue to pursue leads and promote the program whenever possible.
