The SERC is preparing to host the 2023 “in person only” ISASI Annual Seminar in Nashville, Tennessee. Its key members are already working with the consummate International Seminar Chair, as well as contacts in the Nashville area to secure both a hotel close to Broadway (Nashville’s entertainment district) and ensure events and activities are exciting and memorable to all who attend. The SERC is laying groundwork in developing the technical program and will likewise be establishing a tutorial menu that should be pleasing and appreciative to all. It plans to hit the ground running (pending selection of the 2023 ISASI Seminar awardee host) with a cadre of highly motivated and creative committee members.
